FINALE SONG: Swingin' Along the Palama-Uka Trail

Text by Andrew Salz
Music by John Kelly Jr.

We are boys on the trail
On our way to a goal
As we slide run and jump
To the old swimmin' hole.

We run down the ridge
And nearly fly
As we wave to the clouds
And holler to the sky:

All together gang
Together all the way
Swingin', swingin'
Swingin' through the forest
On a clear mountain day.

Try out your echo, echo, echo . . . echo
Try out your yodle-e-hee-hoo, yodle-e-hee-hoo . . .
e-hee-hoo

Try out your echo, echo, echo
And your yodle-e-hee-hoo, e-hee-hoo
Try out your yodle and your echo
When your swingin' and your singin'
On a clear mountain day.

We are boys on the trail
On our way to a goal
As we slide run and jump
To the old swimming hole.

We run down the ridge
And nearly fly
As we wave to the clouds
And holler to the sky.

The Seventh Annual Festival of Music is presented by Palama Settlement under the sponsorship of the FRIENDS OF PALAMA CLUB, an organization of volunteers whose sole objective is service to Palama Settlement. The President of the Friends is Kenneth Saruwatari. The General Chairman for the Festival of Music is Patsy Takemoto Mink. Program and arrangements were done by John Kelly, Jr. The proceeds from these two programs will be used to support General Scholarship Program at Palama Settlement.

PALAMA SETTLEMENT extends ALOHA and THANKS to . . .

The Friends of Palama Club

All the performing groups and individuals who so generously contributed their talents to make possible our Festival of Music.

Walton Gordon, Harry Tam, Lily Nakagawa, David A. Benz, Jock Purington, and Walter C. Grace for their gracious contributions.

All the staff of the Settlement and members of the Palama community, and to all the members of the Board of Trustees who helped in so many ways.

And to our numerous other friends who made up our ticket selling committee.

PALAMA SETTLEMENT IS A COMMUNITY CHEST AGENCY
