TUBERCULOSIS ASSOCIATION OPENS 10TH CHRISTMAS SEAL CAMPAIGN

Three children lifting up their voices in a carol of the season is the pictorial theme of the 1940 Christmas Seal Sale of the Tuberculosis Association, with headquarters at Palama Settlement.

The cherubic faces expressing so vividly the spirit of youth and joy come from the brush of Felix Martini of Los Angeles.

This is the 10th annual Christmas Seal Campaign of the Association, the first having been held in 1931 by the Tuberculosis Committee of Palama Settlement.

Projects financed by the present campaign will include the production of a color movie on tuberculosis facilities in the islands. Extensive showing of this film to clubs, schools, and organizations in the territory is expected. This production is a joint project of the Chamber of Commerce of Honolulu and the Tuberculosis Association. Other projects subsidized by the Christmas Seal Association are the sheltered workshop for discharged patients, case-finding programs in schools and industry, distribution of educational materials, such as posters and booklets, and assistance with the school health class program.

PAL-HVAC BOXING SMOKER SCHEDULED WEDNESDAY

Palama Settlement's Amateur Boxing Club will tackle the newly organized Hawaiian Vacation Athletic Club in a dual meet Wednesday, November 6, in the West-side gym. The curtain will rise over the first bout at 7:30 p.m., with men of fist-ic prominence officiating.

The Winged "P" battlers have been training for more than a month under Louis Mendonca, Jesse Garcia, and Johnny Santiago, and are in fine mettle. HVAC is being tutored by Raymond Seki and Mona Williams and is also in fine shape to stage a great show.

Palama stars who are scheduled to perform are David Roman, outstanding Novice fighter of the 1940 AAU Boxing Tournament, Daniel Borero, hard-hitting lightweight, and Manuel Ramos.

Because of the Federal amusement tax, prices have been hiked to 50 cents for reserved seats, with general admission set at 35 cents, and children's tickets at 10 cents.

TONY GORA WINS 130# BAREFOOT CHAMPIONSHIP

Coach Masuto Fujii's hard-fighting Tony Gora outfit won the 1940 Citywide-Palama 130# barefoot football league championship by whipping Ben Ahakuelo's Moiliili Blue Devils 9-7 after a thrilling uphill battle before 2,000 rabid fans Sunday, November 3, at the Honolulu Stadium.

Joe Goshima, sensational Gora halfback, gave the Ramblers sweet victory in the closing seconds of a bitter struggle with a 29-yard field goal which split the up-rights and also Moiliili's heart.

Moiliili Blues enjoyed a seven-point lead gained early in the opening quarter until the last five minutes of the ball game when Goshima tallied from the five-yard stripe after snapper-back Spike Nakayama had recovered a Moiliili fumble. Goshima failed to tie-up the tussle by conversion but came through in spectacular manner with only 30 seconds left to play.

Yoshio Kurihara scored for Moiliili from Tony Gora's 15-yard line after taking a 20-yard pass from Tokio Horita early in the first period. Wallace Nakano drop-kicked the extra point, giving Moiliili a big lead which Tony Gora failed to wipe out in three great drives during the second and third periods.

Tony Gora was West Section champion and Moiliili Blues East titlists of the 16-team Citywide-Palama league.

WINGED "P" CAGERS PRIMED FOR ASUH SEASON

Palama Settlement's Junior Basketball team is primed for action in the ASUH Junior circuit which is tentatively scheduled to open action November 20 in the University of Hawaii gymnasium. The Pals have been practicing for the past five weeks and are beginning to hit their stride.

Palama was ASUH champion in 1938 and was a strong contender in 1939 and 1940. This season's outfit is mediocre but full of spirit. Listed on the Winged "P" roster are Charles McKee, Joe Byron, Alfred Lum, Kenneth Wong, Francis Kapahua, John Alapai, Chun Soon Kim, Nick Lenchancko, Joe Kim, Herman Kopa, Boyd McKenzie, and Stanley Chow.

MASK CONTEST SPONSORED BY BOYS' DEPARTMENT

Close to a hundred Settlement members participated in the Boys' Department's Hallowe'en Mask Contest held Thursday, October 31. Peter Victoria walked off with first prize for the best home-made Hallowe'en mask.

First prize for the best looking "store" mask went to Albert De Rego, with Gordon Wong second and Junior Oleyan in third place. Alfred Soto won the prize for the best-looking Hallowe'en costume. Mello Rodrigues' outfit was adjudged second best and Albert Lum's third.

Prior to the Mask Contest, a big scavenger hunt was held on the Settlement grounds. Tony Martinez copped the first prize, a nifty sweater. Refreshments were enjoyed by all contestants following the contest at the Boys' Clubrooms.

In charge of the contest were Boys' Club Supervisor Harry K. Lee, Clubhouse Custodian Raymond Choo, and University of Hawaii NYA students.

| Comets | 42; | Radio Appliances | 41 |
| ACA Juniors | 36; | Esther Malt Shop | 19 |

With three sections of Palama Settlement's 135 and 120 pound basketball loops yet to complete their schedules, favorites continue to hold choice positions in the final drive for places in the championship round-robin. The community cagers offered seven fast tussles last week in the West-side gym before enthusiastic crowds.

ACA Juniors #3 whipped ACA Juniors #1 by a 20-11 margin in the first game of a 120 pound Section "A" triple-bill Tuesday, October 29. Sheridan A.C. eliminated Park Theater 36-22 in a rousing game. Fair Department Store downed Kaiulani A.C. 29-20 in the third game of the evening.

Francis Kapahua's/virtually clinched a position in the 135 pound championships by nipping a surprisingly tough Radio Appliance outfit 42-41 in the feature tussle of a Section "A" twin-attraction Thursday, October 31. The Koreans made a gallant bid for a round-robin berth but failed by a breath. Charley Raymond led the Comets' offense with 11 points, with Scharsch, Goo, and Punzal giving him fine support. Yuen dumped in 14 points for Radio Appliance, as Choy came through with 10. ACA Juniors routed Esther Malt Shop 36-19 in the other tilt with Chu and Chun each scoring 10 digits.

David Y.K. Akana qualified for the 120# titular series by taking Onomichiya Hotel 23-13 in the first tilt of a Section "B" double-header Sunday, November 3. A rejuvenated Takei Dry Goods quintet surprised ACA Juniors #2 with a 25-19 victory in the second game, throwing a hitch in the circuit standings. As a result of the upset, Takei Dry Goods, ACA Juniors #2, and Onomichiya Hotel are tied for second place with one win in three starts each.
