Morning Music Club
1035 6th Avenue
Honolulu 16, Hawaii

Dear Mildred:

Thanks very much for the 50 tickets. We will distribute these to our students and get good commitments from them to be there.

Hope it goes well for such a worthy project.

I have tried to reach you in another connection recently but without success so I'll bring the point up here.

We have formed a temporary planning committee of Honolulu's leaders in the music field including George Barati, Marion Kerr, Richard Vine and many others to lay plans for a big series of Master classes and a Music Festival to take place in December and built around the presence of Mr. Julius Herford, one of this country's leading pianists, lecturer and analyst.

This planning committee will have its second meeting on Sunday evening, May 5th at 8:00 p.m. here at the Palama Music School. I would like to know if you would consent to come to this meeting and represent the Morning Music Club and its prospective interest in festival. The Master Classes will be primarily designed to offer advanced study opportunity to Honolulu's music teachers. In view of the importance of the project nearly every music institution and group in the city is involved. We would appreciate your participation.

May I hear from you about this? Our number is 879525.

And thanks again for your interest in our work here.

With Best regards,

John M. Kelly Jr., Director
The Music School
