Our staff is having a hard time finding a name for our newspaper. If you have any ideas, please kokua by giving a bright name to the paper. Please write your own name after your suggestion, and put it in the suggestion box near the water fountain. Thank you.

HEY, LET'S TWIST!

By Mary Wahl

An April Fool's Twist dance will be held at the new Palama Gym March 31 from 7:30 to 11 p.m.

Admission prices are $1 for adults and 50 cents for teenagers. Tickets may be purchased from members of the Palama Swim Team who are sponsoring the dance.

The Starlighters will provide music.

Palama Swim Team was host to their first swim meet March 3. There were more than 200 swimmers participating, including those from Oahu, Maui and Hilo. The Hilo swimmers were house guests of Palama parents. Lani Kimokeo, who just four years ago started her swimming career in the monthly swimming meets held under the direction of Nelson Kawakami, was selected as the outstanding swimmer of the meet. She took a first place in the 100-yard backstroke and broke the record in the 200-yard freestyle by more than three seconds.

Lani and coach Harry Mamizuka were honored earlier this year as the outstanding swimmer and coach in Hawaii.

job agency

By Alihandro Plaza

The Teen Employment Service of Palama Settlement, an agency that seeks to train and place teenage member applicants in part-time jobs, is pleased to announce the completion of the Babysitting Training Program.

Applicants in the program include William Kauhi, Diane Olival, Rebecca Hung, Marge Kwock and Cynthia Infiesto.

Instructors for the Program included Mrs. Makekau, Mrs. Centeio, from the Public Health Nursing Service of the Dept. of Health and Mr. Lorin Gill of Palama Settlement.

The agency is also planning a Service Station Training Program on Pump Island Procedure in the near future. All teenage members interested should apply before March 21 at the Teen Employment Office. The office is located within the Group Work Building of Palama Settlement and is open on Mondays and Wednesdays from 4 to 5:30 p.m.

All other persons interested in part-time job placements through our Service should apply at the same place and time at their earliest convenience.

OPEN HOUSE

By Diane Olival

Palama Settlement will hold its annual Open House starting today to March 17. This is to show the community the various activities that are taking place at the Settlement. It is also held to encourage non-members to enroll in the program that is offered throughout the year. The most important and most popular places to visit would be some of the following:

Group Work and Recreational Building- Arts and Crafts, Woodshop, Canteen Room, Sewing Room, Photography Room, Game Room and Auditorium.

Physical Education - Swimming Pool; Boys and Girls Locker Rooms, Club Rooms, Aikido and Judo Room and Gym.

Music Building-Auditorium, Classrooms and Band Room.

Home Economics Building-Cafeteria and Kitchen.

More information may be obtained at information booths which will be headed by Junior Leaders located at three different places: in front of Group Work Building, Swimming Pool and the Gym.

Registration Books will be at three booths for all guests of the Open House to sign in. Staff members will also be on hand if any further questions arise.

Be sure to drop in even if it is only for a few minutes just as long as you can see what your child will do once he becomes a member.

Additional information may be obtained by calling 83-945.

Ask for any staff member on hand who will try to answer all your questions.

EASTER CAMPING

Palama's annual Easter Camp at Palama Uka, a mountain camp in the forest above Haleiwa, will be held during the Easter Recess from April 16 to 19.

Campers will enjoy hikes, swimming in mountain streams, campfires, archery, fishing, sports and a host of other activities. This year the camp, which is open to intermediate and high school teens, will be planned here at the Settlement by the campers themselves.

All those who are interested in going to camp this year are asked to sign up at one of the tables which will be set up and manned by assistant leaders during the Open House this week.

PALAMA SETTLEMENT STARTS A NEWSPAPER

By Rebecca Hung

Palama Settlement is starting a newspaper and this is the first issue.

The purpose of this paper is to inform all members of Settlement events.

Last week a meeting was held for the first issue and some of the people who were interested in staffing this paper were Reggie Berdon, Henry Dela Cruz, Diane Olival, Herbert Vina, Clyde Wong, William Lopez and Rebecca Hung.

The paper will be published twice a month and certain issues will be mailed to the membership of Palama.

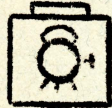

Our advisor is Mr. Walter Nakamura and coordinator, Mr. Lorin Gill.

Anyone who is interested in working with the staff please contact Mr. Gill.

TWIXT 7 AND 12

By Eunice Amii

Saturday Morning Program is a regular function for youngsters between the ages of seven and twelve. This activity is put on to keep the child physically and mentally alert. The child learns to associate with children his own age and learns the varied skills in outdoor and indoor activities. This activity is under the supervision of Esther Watanabe. Teenage volunteers provide the direct leadership of the groups. It is held every Saturday from 8:30 to 11:30 in the morning on the Palama grounds.

camera bugs

By Francis Palmerstan

Bats Club members will go to Palama Uka for an overnight camp on March 16 and 17. They will leave at 4:30 p.m. Friday and will return on Saturday at 4 p.m.

Ten boys will go on the camping trip with their adviser George Fujioka and assistant leader Maurice Morita. Some of the things they will be doing are fishing, swimming, volley ball, football and hiking.

The boys will have breakfast, lunch, dinner and snacks at the camp.

HOOKEERS TO GO HOOKONG

By Walter Nihipali

The Trail Blazers Club, Palama's experienced hikers, will be taking a trip that doesn't involve much hiking this month. On the long Kuhio Day weekend, they will go camping on Kapapa Island in Kaneohe Bay.

Carrying all their food, water, shelter, and firewood out by launch, the "hikers" expect to brave the elements for three days. Fishing, spearing, sailing and sleeping are planned by Chris Hirayama, chairman for the event.

Working with him are Mrs. Evelyn Guisenberry, Herbert Vina, Walter Nihipali, and William Kauhi.

BASKETBALL

By Herbert Vina

Palama Settlement will have a basketball tournament for intermediate and elementary school children. The intermediate teams and coaches are: Bats by Maurice Morita, Thunderbirds by James Tokuhara, Pop Warner by William Wong, Warriors by Herbert Vina and the Angles. The elementary teams and coaches are: Knights by Leonard Beppu, Unknowns by Dennis Okimoto and the Hawks by Harry Leekwai, and the Thunderbird Jr. by Wendall Neves.
