HONOLULU ADVERTISER (for immediate release)

On Friday, March 17, approximately 25 parents attended the Palama Settlement Pre-school's PTA meeting to make final plans for the pre-school's big bazaar to be held on Saturday, April 1 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on the school grounds. Previously, on Friday, March 3, the parents and teachers had met and at that time it was decided to hold a bazaar at the school. Miss Esther So, director of Palama Pre-school, states that all parents expressed genuine enthusiasm on the bazaar and offered their all-out kokua to make the bazaar a success.

Home-made pies, cookies, cakes, pretzels and Japanese sushi-rice will be on sale. Hot dogs, pop corns and soft drinks, too, will be sold. The public will have a wonderful opportunity to purchase children and adult's dresses and suits, as well as other clothing and items at bargain prices.

There will be games of skill, dart and ball throwing. Children will enjoy the train ride and the colorful balloons which are important items at any fair or bazaar.

All proceeds derived from the bazaar will go toward the purchase of new equipment and for general improvement of pre-school.

Make it a date on April 1 to attend Palama Settlement Pre-school's big bazaar.

Palama Settlement is a red-feather agency.
