AN IDEAL TOWARD WHICH PALAMA SETTLEMENT STRIVES

THE GOODWILL*

To understand one another

To interpret misunderstood attitudes and situations

To reconcile and be reconciled to differences of taste and temperament, race and religion, heritage and aspiration

And through service and sacrifice to promote the unity of spirit in the bond of peace -

This is the way toward the peace of God that passeth all understanding.

Is it not now the hope for the best that it is yet to be everywhere?

SCOUTING AT PALAMA

By
James Koo

COURT OF PRESENTATION

Palama Settlement's Boy Scout units held a Court of Presentation Friday evening, December 23, in the playground pavilion, to honor Scouts who had passed their Tenderfoot, Second Class, and First Class requirements during the past year. Badges and pins were awarded the deserving Scouts and recognition given to those with perfect attendance records.

The little followers of Akela, Cub Pack #10, who had passed their Wolf rank and requirements for Gold and Silver arrow points were also honored.

Dr. Philip S. Platt, director of Palama Settlement, and Mr. Paul J. Lau of Boy Scout Headquarters were guest speakers of the evening. Immediately following the presentations, a Christmas play "The Birth of Christ" was presented.

William Young of Troop #30 won the knot-tying contest from a field of picked Scouts. Refreshments were served to the Scouts and their guests after the program.

CAMP

Twenty Scouts are spending three days of camping at Waialua as part of their Christmas vacation. The campers left Tuesday morning, December 27, and will return Thursday afternoon, December 29.

Defeat isn't bitter if you don't swallow it.

If you brood over your troubles you'll have a perfect hatch.

TAMANAHA WINS PAL HANDICAP MARATHON RUN

Norman Tamanaha, veteran Winged "P" road-running ace, added another title to his long list by winning Palama Settlement's 2nd annual handicap marathon run Sunday morning, December 25. Tamanaha negotiated the distance, a 6.9 mile run, in 35 minutes, 53 and five-tenths seconds, beating a fine field of 19 harriers to the finish.

Albert Chun, for many years a Pal mainstay, was second in 36 minutes flat, and William Badjadali, former Waialua kingpin, third in 37 minutes 20.1 seconds. Tamanaha, Chun, and Badajali ran from scratch, while the others were given handicaps of from one to six minutes.

Robello finished in fourth position just a step behind Badjadali, but his one-minute handicap gave him an elapsed time of 38 minutes, 22.5 seconds.

Medals were awarded to the first four winners by Louis Mendonca, coach of the Pal marathon team. The run was designed by Mendonca as a conditioner for the Diamond Head five-mile race slated Monday, January 2, 1939, and as a try-out for the berths on the Palama team for the Around-Oahu Marathon Relay classic scheduled Sunday, January 15. The Pals are given better than an even chance to cop individual and team championships in both races.

PAL BOXERS MEET HAW'N PINERS DECEMBER 28

Westside fight fans will be given their second treat of fistic action within a month, this Wednesday evening, December 28, when the Winged "P" mitt-slingers tangle with the Hawaiian Pine sluggers in a dual amateur boxing smoker at the Palama gym. The opening bout is scheduled for 8:00 p.m.

A big crowd saw the triangular meet between Palama, Nuuanu Y, and Kakaako YMA which was held December 5, and large turnout is expected again. General admission will be 25 cents, ringside 40¢, and 10¢ for kiddies.

120# CAGERS NEARING CLOSE OF SCHEDULES

SECTION "A"

Nuuamu Y	25; Pirates "A"	17
Eki Cyclery	50; Desha Lane	26
Makiki	20; Anchor Cafe	15

SECTION "B"

Club Billiard	2; Maui Inn	0
Pirates "B"	27; McInerny	25
Hui Eleu	43; Kyodo Kai	30

SECTION "C"

McCully	26; Castle A. C.	13
Sumida Express	21; Rengo Kai	17
Alex Sandwich	20; Riders	16

The Palama Community 120# basketball league neared the close of its regular schedule as the three sections completed their fifth week of play at the Westside gym.

Richard Kato's Nuuanu Y cagers opened Section "A" tussles Monday, December 19, by taking Pirates "A" 25-17. Yano shone for Nuuanu Y by scoring 10 points. Eki Cyclery clinched a spot in the championship round-robin that will follow the regular tournaments by overwhelming Desha Lane 50-26, with G. Eki, T. Mizukami, and Miyamoto scoring heavily. Miyamoto tallied 15 points and Eki and Mizukami 12 each. Makiki dumped Anchor Cafe 20-15 in the last game of the evening behind Sakuma's 10 points.

Elmo Tomita's Club Billiard Parlor took a 2-0 default from Maui Inn in the first game of a scheduled triple-bill Tuesday, December 20. Pirates "B" nipped a traditional rival 27-25 in downing McInerny. W. Young sparkled for the Pirates by registering 10 points. McInerny's Sagawa, however, copped high-scoring laurels with 13 digits. Hui Eleu walloped Kyodo Kai 43-30 in the final game of the night with Lum tallying 18 points, and Wun 12.

McCully whipped Castle A.C. 26-13 in the opening skirmish Thursday, December 22 behind Sugimoto's 16 points. The victory gave McCully a place in the championship round-robin. Sumida Express also qualified for the play-offs by taking Rengo Kai 21-17. Kato twinkled for Sumida by connecting for 10 points. Alexander's Sandwich Shop lowered the curtain on the week's 120# basketball activities by chopping the Riders 20-16.

PIRATES CROWNED 135# BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

Tommy Wong's well-balanced Pirate outfit crowned themselves 1938 Palama Community 135# cage champions by outscoring McInerny, defending-titlists, 52-40, in the finals of the 135# play-offs before a large crowd, Friday, December 23, in the Palama gym.

Both teams earned the right to meet for the title by eliminating rival squads Wednesday night. The Pirates turned back Castle A.C. 31-27, while McInerny took Riverside by a 29-22 count.

Lawrence Chun led the Pirates to their scintillating victory over McInerny by tossing in 19 points from all angles of the floor. He was accorded brilliant support by Raymond Chun with 11 points, Loui with 10, and V. Wong with nine markers. The Chun boys completely dominated play from their guard positions, ringing the basket from long range and slipping in for lay-up shots with spectacular consistency besides flashing bang-up performances on defense.

The Monarchs were outclassed from the opening whistle as the Pirates outpassed, outshot, and outmanuevered them in sensational manner. The Pirates' floor-work and ball-handling, especially that of Raymond Chun, were dazzling at times.

Mahukona and Silva, with 11 points each, did yeomen work for the defending champions, but could not cope with the great all-round strength of the Pirates.

The newly-crowned 135# champions ruled the 120# roost for several years, enjoying undefeated campaigns in 1936 and '37, and performed this season in the 135# league for want of competition.

PALS BOW TO CITYWIDE IN JR. ASUH CAGE MIX

An inspired Citywide quintet upset Fil Marvin's Winged "P" cagers 50-41 in a crucial Junior ASUH tilt last Thursday evening at the University of Hawaii gym. The setback was Palama's first in four starts. A victory would have placed the Pals in the championship play-offs.

Citywide enjoyed a 13-point lead at half-time, but the Pals closed the gap with a brilliant rally and led 41-40 with four minutes of play remaining. However, the Citywidiers came back to clinch the victory.

Thursday
Palama will meet the Rough Riders this/ in their last game of the regular schedule.
