Staff

The staff attended the annual O.E.A. meeting held at the Mc Kinley auditorium. The guest speaker was Mrs. Waurine Walker, president of the National Education Asso. from Texas. She spoke on the "Needs of Education" Dr. Clyde Ewing, professor of Education at the University also spoke on "The lag in Education"

Jan. 18. Mrs. Tsukamoto and I attended the meeting of the Sight Conservation at the Liliuokalani building with the various public school teachers. The discussion centered around the education of the blind. Mrs. Grueber and Mr. Barnett of the American Foundation for the Blind from New York gave a helpful and encouraging talk on the aids given to the blind and the trend of education being one of haveing the blind with the sighted children. We were also informed about the type of ehlp given by the states as well as the Federal fund available towards the education of the blind.

Jan. 17. I attended the supervisors' meeting at the university concerning the semester's work of the O. P. students. I also attended the Art Workshop given by the D.P. I. held at the Academy of arts. This was a workshop especially for the pre-school children. I was able to share many new ideas with others as well as get a new perspective in the work created by the children in school. Our staff members were encouraged to attend this workshop but regretted that none took advantage of this opportunity to do so. However, I shared the information with them at our staff meeting.
