

The Palama Children's Chorus

together with music appreciation and theory classes helps to better an appreciation of the rich and varied musical culture of the people of Hawaii. Chorus, band, string ensemble, music appreciation classes, recitals and programs are all offered as part of the low cost semester plan.

Through recitals, student concerts and large public concerts young musicians acquire poise and assurance.

MORE MUSIC
at Palama

The Palama Settlement Music School . . .

is a non-profit community music center providing music training to both children and adults. In happy and attractive surroundings, a staff of college and conservatory trained specialists teach private and class instruction at the lowest rates in Honolulu. An extensive scholarship program makes beginning and advanced study possible for children from the Kalihi-Palama area who could not otherwise afford lessons.

Future Band and Orchestra Musicians get their start in music through skills acquired on instruments of their own choice. The Palama-Kiwanis band is supported by the Kiwanis Club of Honolulu with funds received from the World Adventure tours. Instruction is free.

The Music School is part of the overall Settlement program which integrates recreational and educational activities in athletics, club and group work and pre-school. The agency has served the people of the Kalihi-Palama area for over fifty years.

The Music School of Palama Settlement, a Community Chest Agency, offers classes and lessons in two 17-week semesters and one 7 week summer session.
