MRS. PITMAN TO LEAVE SETTLEMENT EMPLOY

Mrs. Pitman, for the past several years director of girls' clubs at Palama, will leave the Settlement at the end of November to accept a position with the Department of Public Instruction on the island of Hawaii.

Mrs. Pitman was well-liked by all her club leaders and associates, and leaves with the best wishes of the entire girls' membership at the Settlement.

AMATEUR BOXING SMOKER SCHEDULED MONDAY

Palama Settlement's amateur boxing squad, coached by Dr. Jacob Ing and Peter Navarro, will tangle with Mannie Townsend's Kamamalu A.C. in a dual smoker Monday, December 4, at the Settlement gym.

The slugfest will mark the third showing of the Winged "P" mit-men this season and the first for Kamamalu. Boxing fans are fairly well-acquainted with the ability of the Palama stable, and are also familiar with the Kamamalu simon pures, based upon their performances last year. A well-matched and interesting card is in the offing when the dual-smoker lifts its curtain at 8:00 p.m. Monday.

Palama's Roman, Borero, Miyashiro, Grace, and Kim are crowd-pleasers and improving with each smoker. Kamamalu boast of many ring-wise veterans, with Louis Freitas, George Sueoka, Mariano Dias, John Shiraishi, and Alfred Lum heading a big list of stars.

The card will be made up following weigh-in of the fighters Sunday morning. The entire card and officials for the smokers will be announced later.

Fight fans under 13 years of age will be admitted into the gym for 10 cents.

FOUR TEAMS UNBEATEN IN 135# CAGE LEAGUE

SECTION "A"

Honolulu Vocats	2;	Kaahumanu	0
McInerny Monarchs	25;	Musa Shiya	14

SECTION "B"

Abell's Crusaders	16;	Alex Sandwich	12
Kaheka A. C.	40;	Elfs A. C.	7
Diamond Packers	25;	Pirates	17

Four outfits, Honolulu Vocational School and Castle A. C. in Section "A", together with Abell's Crusaders and Diamond Packers in Section "B", remained unbeaten following completion of the third week of action in Palama Settlement's 135# basketball league Sunday, November 26, in the Palama gym.

With the possible exception of Honolulu Vocational, all four teams loom as likely candidates for the championship round-robin series at the end of the regular schedule.

Abell's Crusaders continued to play spectacular and winning ball to slice Elmo Tomita's Alex Sandwich Shop 16-12 in the best game of a scheduled quintuplet-bill. The loss eliminated Alex Sandwich Shop as a title-contender. Tomita's charges stopped Petrovitch, Abell's ace shot-maker, with three points, but Perreira produced with seven markers in the clutches.

Diamond Packers paced Abell's Crusaders into the three-victory list by whipping Tommy Wong's defending-champion Pirates 25-17 behind the brilliant shooting of Raposa, Pacheco, and Martin, who tallied 11, eight, and six points respectively. Ayau scored eight for the Pirates. The defeat incidentally blasted the Pirates' last hope of hitting the titular play-offs.

Kaheka A. C. chalked up its first victory in three starts by routing Elfs A. C. 40-7 as Murakami ran wild with 12 points. Morisawa gave him good support with eight markers.

McInerny Monarchs conquered Musa Shiya 25-14 to remain in the running for the championship with two wins in three games. Santiago and Yomono starred for the Monarchs by registering eight points each.

Honolulu Vocational School was handed its second straight victory on a silver platter when Kaahumanu defaulted in the scheduled opener of the five-game attraction.

PAL MARATHONERS OPEN TRAINING FOR SEASON

The Palama marathon team opened daily training for the 1939-40 road-running season Sunday, November 26, with an easy workout over the Diamond-Head five-mile course. The team will again be handled by Louis Mendonca, who led the Pals through a successful season last year.

With the defending of the Around-Oahu Marathon Relay title January 21, 1940, as their chief objective, the Pals are gunning for all major marathon laurels starting with the YMCA-sponsored Diamond Head jaunt on New Year's Day.

Norman Tamanaha, William Badjadalli, Burton Hooper, and Albert Chun generally conceded to be the greatest quartet of marathon runners ever assembled under one banner locally, are back in harness and ready to carry the Winged "P" to greater heights. The championship <sup>Palama</sup> 20-man Around-Oahu Relay squad is nearly intact and eager to go.

Dictatorship: A system of government where everything that isn't forbidden is obligatory.

An English lady, self-appointed supervisor of village morals, accused a workman of having reverted to drink because "with her own eyes" she had seen his wheel-barrow standing outside a public house.

The accused man made no verbal defense, but the same evening he placed his wheel-barrow outside her door and left it there all night.

It isn't love, though, till you dislocate your jaw.

ONLY THREE TUSSLES OFFERED BY 120 POUNDERS

SECTION "B"

McInerny	13;	Nomads	11
Pirates "B"	29;	M. I. A.	15
Dwights	22;	Higuchi Tailors	8

Palama Settlement's 120# basketball league offered only three games last week to Westside cage fans at the Settlement gym. The Thanksgiving holiday and a boxing smoker wrecked the usual nine-game attraction, but action was concentrated in a Section "B" triple-bill Tuesday, November 21.

McInerny opened hostilities by stopping the Nomads 13-11 behind fine shooting by Nakamura and Shima. Chung and Chang twinkled for the Nomads.

Tommy Wong's Pirates "B" walloped M.I.A. 29-15 as Young, Chang, Lee, and Goo power-housed the Pirate offense. Saito and Yamamoto performed well for the Mormons.

Dwights took Higuchi Tailors to the cleaners by a 22-8 score in the final game of the evening. Kawachi, with seven points, spear-headed Dwights' attack. Kobayashi stood out for the Tailors with five digits.

The 120 pounders will continue under full steam this week with triple-attractions in all three sections. However, the amateur boxing smoker scheduled between Palama and Kamamalu A.C. Monday, December 4, has necessitated the shifting of Section "A" tussles to Friday, December 1.

PAL CAGERS TO MAKE JR ASUH DEBUT FRIDAY

Coach Walter Wong's Palama Junior cage stars will make their debut this Friday evening, December 1, in the first game of a Junior A.S.U.H. triple-bill at the University of Hawaii gym.

The Pals will be matched against the tough Kakaako Sons outfit, but are doped to win. Coach Wong is piloting a fine array of basketball talent which ranks high in pre-season ratings as a top-contender for the championship of the 24-team circuit.

Palama's offense is centered around James Lam, Robert Wong, Charley Ah Sui, Francis Kapahua, and Arthur Kauahi. Holding up the defense are Charley Kaninau, Clarence Kealoha, Wah Kau Kong, and Henry Hu.
