Well, my skin's black
And your skin's white
Black and white
We'll win this fight.

Well, the ink is black
And the page is white
Together we learn
To read and write.

With the sun up high
And the earth below
Together we'll make
This freedom grow.

Well the birds and bees
And the fish in the sea
They all love freedom
Like you and me.

With the fish in the sea
And the birds in the sky
The spirit of freedom
Will never die.

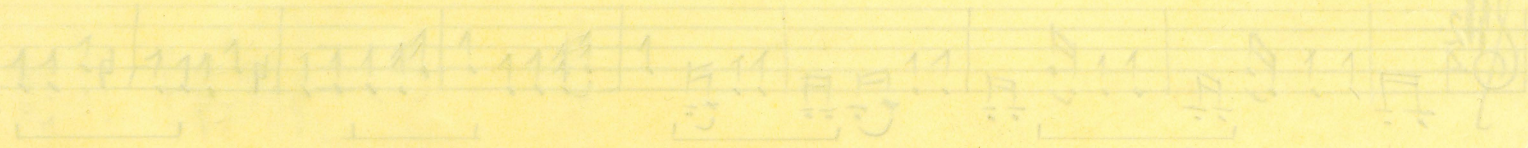

How I tell you
And you tell me
A bird in a cage
Is never free.

Gonna plant me a seed
That seed gonna grow
From seed to tree
Both you and I know.

That freedom tree
With roots in the ground
Gonna spread its shade
All around this town.

Don't spoil that ground
Don't cut that tree
It's freedom's shade
Over you and me.
