JAMES A. RATH AUDITORIUM

MODERN DANCE..... MRS. MARSHA BULLOCH, Instructor

A visit to Disneyland is the theme of tonight's dances. The first number is about people buying tickets and going through the gates. Then three girls watch a puppet show and react to the puppet movements. A folk dance follows, and the girls come to the Cup and Saucer ride. They "become" the cups and the saucers, and have a little dance together. The trip to Disneyland ends with a slow, sleepy dance.
