PIANISTS :

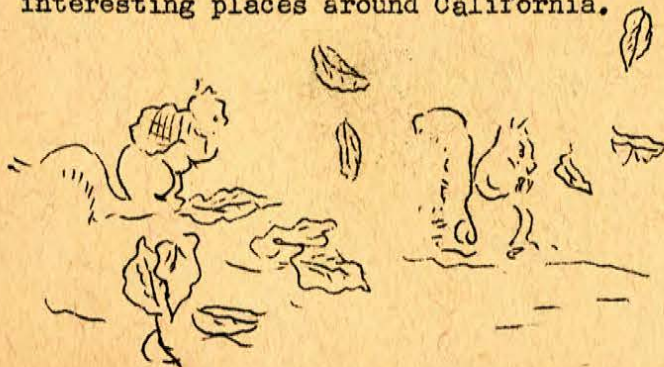

GREETINGS TO ALL OF YOU FROM THE PIANO FACULTY. Now that another school year is starting we are happy to welcome you and our new students back to Palama Music School. By now most of you know we have two new teachers. Our first column is therefore devoted to introductions of new teachers and the summer vacation activities of the teachers you already know from previous years.

Miss Dora Ah Chan

Miss Ah Chan is back in her old room on the second floor overlooking the swimming pool. Miss Ah Chan spent this summer vacation visiting relatives in Los Angeles. For an exciting story you should ask Miss Ah Chan about her visits to Disneyland.

Miss Carol Yamaguchi

Another of our teachers who visited the mainland this summer was Miss Carol Yamaguchi. Her ventures took her to San Francisco, Los Angeles and Las Vegas, Nevada. Miss Yamaguchi has many experiences to relate about Marineland, Hollywood Bowl, and other interesting places around California.

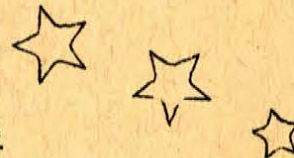

Miss Nora Matsumura

Miss Matsumura kept the home fires burning while the rest of the teachers were away. She did a lot of practicing at the piano and took in the summer concerts at the Waikiki Shell.

Mr. Ronald Tarr

One of our new teachers this year is Mr. Ronald Tarr. He will head the piano faculty here and comes to us from Los Angeles, California where he has been studying towards his Doctorate in Music at the University of Southern California. Mr. Tarr also attended the University of Illinois where he received his Master of Music degree and the University of Washington where he received the Bachelor of Arts degree. Mr. Tarr is both a teacher and performer and has played piano recitals and concerts throughout the West Coast and the Mid-West. He is looking forward to meeting all the students and their parents. Mr. Tarr's studio is in room #1 on the main floor right next to the office.

Miss Joanna Noble

As this column is being written we have another piano teacher joining our faculty. She is Miss Joanna Noble from New York City. Miss Noble has come to Honolulu to play cello in the Symphony Orchestra. For the last two years she has been in Paris, France studying at the Conservatoire Nationale de Musique (National Academy of Music). Before that Miss Noble attended Mount Holyoke College in Massachusetts where she received her Bachelors degree. She will teach piano and cello on a part time basis here and if you have any friends who want to take lessons from her we suggest that you come in and see us very soon.
