10 BOYS TO TRAIN

By Alihandro Plaza

Twelve ambitious teen-age boys have signed up to take advantage of the Teen Employment Service's offer to train them on the duties and responsibilities of a Service Station attendant. Consisting of Orientation and Group Instruction on Pump Island Procedure and a two-hour on the job practical training at a station, the program will better these boys' chances for employment in a service station. Upon successful completion of this program, the Teen Employment Service will advertise for them and try to place these boys into jobs at service stations.

Mr. Edward Llacuna, manager of Union Oil Service on Nuuanu and Kukui Street, will be the instructor.

Others who want to take advantage of the Teen Employment service should sign up at the office at Palama Settlement within the Group Work Building on either a Monday or Tuesday from 4-5:30 p.m.

PALAMA UKA TRIP PLANNED

By Eunice Amii

The leaders of the Saturday Morning Program will be having their second workshop at Palama Uka. It will be an overnight event on April 6, 7 and 8.
