Nora Hinkley, Carl Cunningham, Dorothy Moritz

Ronald Tarr's Students: After a long discussion it was decided Mr. Tarr will assign his piano students to the full time teachers. The overload of students remaining will be put on a part-time teacher's schedule.

Percentage Plan or Direct Pay Per Period as at Present:

After a long discussion Mr. Larson invited the teachers to submit a plan that was both acceptable and desirable from the teacher's standpoint. In turn Mr. Larson will sift and develop the material into a practical plan of operations of the Music School starting next semester. Teachers were also invited by Mr. Larson to make known their personal desires either to be on full-time basis or flexible part-time basis.

Music School: The Music School will operate as it has been until the end of the semester. A part-time teacher will be brought in to take the overload of students from Mr. Tarr's schedule.
