To Mr. A. L. Y. Ward
From Dorothy Chun
Subject: For Open Door Publication

"Do you like the music of Debussy?" "You don't know?" "You've never heard his music before?" "Surely you are familiar with the popular Clair de Lune. It was written by Debussy." If you come to the faculty recital you will learn that you can become very fond of Debussy's music after you've heard his Golliwog's Cake Walk which title sounds like some kind of Be-Bop music but really is something quite out of this world with its syncopated rhythm. Perhaps if you like the Debussy numbers well enough, Miss Hope Troyer, pianist, can be persuaded to play as an encore the famous Clair de Lune. On the program will be the well-known Sonata Pathetique by Beethoven.

"If you like singing, you will enjoy songs sung by Miss Emma Loo, soprano, who will sing a group of Italian Songs and a group of delightful songs in a language you can understand - yes, the English language."

Come and spend an enjoyable evening at the Music School Faculty Recital on Saturday night, April 21 at 7:30 P.M. Tickets will be distributed in parts of the neighborhood. However, the public is invited to come even without tickets for admission is free. So bring your friends and come.
