

EAST MEETS WEST IN HAWAII

To: FRIENDS OF FOLK MUSIC, SCHOOL TEACHERS AND RECREATION LEADERS

From: THE PLANNING COMMITTEE FOR THE 1959 FOLK MUSIC FESTIVAL

During public school Easter vacation, March 30 through April 4, 1959, there will take place in Honolulu a community-wide Folk Music Festival. Under the theme, EAST MEETS WEST IN HAWAII, there will be a series of seminars on:

Folk Music of Hawaii, Japan, Ryukyus, Korea, China, the Phillipines, Samoa and the mainland U.S.

FEATURING:

- ★ ...SONG KITS of folk-songs containing songs to be learned. Kits will contain MELODIES, ENGLISH TRANSLATIONS, simple performance suggestions and interesting information..... Ideal to enrich your classroom or recreational singing. LEARN ABOUT OUR GREAT FOLK SONG HERITAGE FROM THE EAST AND WEST!
- ★ ...Foremost folk-music performer-authorities imported from Japan and the mainland U.S.!
- ★ ...Outstanding local folk-song resource people!
- ★ ...Sessions pitched to the average school teacher level of music understanding!
- ★ ...One in-service "B" credit for teachers who attend the seminars and two in-service "B" credits for those joining the Honolulu Community Chorus now!
- ★ ...A thrilling series of six evening concerts during the Festival week featuring:
 - Guest artist folk singers from abroad
 - Community singing indoors and outdoors
 - Two great Waikiki Shell performances featuring:
 - Local Music and Dance ensembles of the Nationalities and
 - The Honolulu Community Chorus and Symphony Orchestra

#

#

#

This Festival of seminars and concerts is being organized with the participation of the Department of Public Instruction, Department of Public Parks and Playground, Palama Settlement, the Honolulu Community Chorus, private and parochial schools, and the Honolulu Academy of Arts.

For further information contact:

Dr. Gerald Erwin
Liliuokalani Building
Honolulu 13, Hawaii
Phone 501731

John M. Kelly Jr.
The Music School
Palama Settlement
810 No. Vineyard St.
Honolulu 17, Hawaii
Phone 879525

#

#

#

If you are interested fill out the attached card and drop it in the mail.
Further information will be forthcoming.