NINTH TUBERCULOSIS CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE BEGINS NOVEMBER 17

The ninth annual Christmas Seal Sale of the Tuberculosis Association, with headquarters at Palama Settlement, will begin this Friday, November 17, and continue until Christmas.

Funds will finance a year-round program in tuberculosis prevention and education. Expansion of the sheltered workshop for former tuberculosis patients is now being planned.

Rockwell Kent, American artist, writer, and lecturer, is the designer of this year's Christmas Seal. "Protect Your Home From Tuberculosis" is the theme of this year's campaign. As a symbol of that protection, Mr. Kent has used an angel with outstretched arm. Against a brilliant blue background, the double-barred cross, international symbol of the fight against tuberculosis, is prominently displayed.

Rockwell Kent was born in Tarrytown Heights, New York, in 1888, and has lived in Newfoundland, in Greenland, and in Alaska. Many of his pictures portray aspects of life among the Eskimos and the Northern Indians. As a side-line, he raises pure-breed Jersey cattle and Great Dane dogs at his farm in upper New York State.

PIRATES "B" WIN 110# CAGE CHAMPIONSHIP

Tommy Wong's classy Pirates "B" cage outfit won the 1939 Palama 110# basketball championship by walloping Castle A. C. 20-13 last Tuesday evening, November 7, in the Westside gym. The victory was the Pirates' eighth in a row against no losses and officially closed the season.

Given Goo sparked the Pirates' win by chalking up 12 points from a forward post, and performing brilliantly on the floor. Pang, Wee, Chock, and Young contributed to the victory by tallying one basket each. Yamaguchi, with four markers, was Castle's big gun. Okamoto and Kinumatsu scored three digits apiece.

Raymond Choo's Hui Aliis staged a brilliant comeback after early season setbacks to rush into second place behind the Pirates. The Aliis sported a seasonal record of six victories and two losses. The remainder of the nine-team field were strung along far back of the two leading teams. Biggest disappointment of the league was the dismal showing made by the defending-champion B. K. Yamamoto outfit, which folded up following a defeat by the Hui Aliis.

Last year, an all-star quintet was selected at the end of the season, but with the wholesale amount of forfeits registered in the 1939 league, the practice has been continued. The Pirates and Hui Alii, incidentally, would have landed the majority of berths.

120# CAGERS OPEN WITH THREE GAMES THURSDAY

Hui Aliis	40;	Kam Heights	17
Alex Sandwich Shop	31;	Vikings	23
Kaheka A. C.	20;	Palms A. C.	19

Palama Settlement's 120# basketball league opened its 1939 season with a fast triple-attraction last Thursday, November 9, at the Palama gym. Hui Aliis swamped Kam Heights 40-17, Alex Sandwich Shop dunked Kamaaina Vikings 31-23, and Kaheka A. C. nipped Palms A. C. 20-19 in Section "A" tilts.

Moving up from the 110# ranks, Hui Aliis proved their mettle in stiffer competition by crushing Kam Heights 40-17 in the league opener. Isaac Lum, with 10 points, paced the Aliis, supported by Ja with eight, Raymond with seven, and Suena-ga with six markers. Fujiyama sparkled for Kam Heights by scoring six digits.

Alex Sandwich Shop whipped the Kamaaina Vikings 31-23 in the second game behind fine shooting by Teshima, Nakasone, and Yogi, who tallied 23 points between them. Alfred Wong and Dan Chang played stellar ball for the Vikings.

Kaheka A. C. scored a brilliant 20-19 victory over Palms A. C. in the last and best game of the evening's triple-bill. Kaheka's better-balanced quintet offset the individual efforts of Eki and Teshima of the losers. Ouchi, Yanamoto, and Watabayashi each scored four points from guard positions to aid the Kaheka cause.

PAL BOXERS BOW TO KAHUKU SIMON PURES

Palama Settlement's amateur boxing squad dropped eight bouts of a 13-event smoker in the climax of a big Armistice Day celebration, Saturday, November 11, at Kahuku. The Kahuku fighters packed too much experience for the game Winged "P" mitt-men, but the Pals were in there throwing leather all the time.

The featherweight match between Peter Kim of Palama and Waialua's Manuel Bunda was the best bout of the evening. Bunda was given a questionable decision by virtue of a first round knockdown over the game Palama fighter who swarmed all over the Waialua ace in the second and third heats. Kim displayed a slashing left hand and a lion's heart.

David Roman scored a second-round TKO victory over Marcelo Galano in a light-weight mix in his first showing as a boxer. Roman handled himself like a veteran, and should be a menace, under careful supervision.

Other Palama winners were Kenneth Miyashiro, Bantam; Sariemento Modesto, Light; Manuel Ramos, Welter; and Johnny Sanchez, Flyweight.

PAIS TO TACKLE CYO STABLE NOVEMBER 20

The Pals will stack up against the tough C.Y.O. boxing squad in their second showing of the dual-meet season, next Monday, November 20, at the Palama gym. The Catholic Youths boast of many top-notchers on their roster, but may meet several tartars in the free-mixing Pals.

135# CAGERS BEGIN ACTION WITH FIVE GAMES

SECTION "A"

Vocational School	22;	McInerny	9
Castle A. C.	39;	Kaahumanu	9

SECTION "B"

Abell's Crusaders	28;	Pirates	26
Diamond Packers	17;	Kaheka A. C.	15
Alex Sandwich Shop	43;	Elfs A. C.	17

Abell's Crusaders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over Tommy Wong's defending-champion Pirates to highlight the opening quint-bill of the Palama 135# basketball league Sunday, November 12, in the West-side gym. The setback was the Pirates' first in three years of competition against top-flight opponents, marring a brilliant record.

Diamond Packers nipped Kaheka A. C. 17-15 in another game which threw the big crowd witnessing the five-game attraction into hysterics. Honolulu Vocation School opened the circuit by dumping McInerny 22-9 to lower the mantle upon the Monarchs as perennial title contenders. Castle A.C. and Alex Sandwich Shop displayed power galore in running up lopsided victories. Castle swamped Kaahumanu 39-9 while the Sandwich Shop crushed Elfs A.C. 43-17.

Petrowich paced Abell's Crusaders in toppling the heavily-favored Pirates by bagging eight points. Kim, Perreira, and Oh gave him fine support in punishing the Pirate basket. Young, Chong, Ayau, and Lee of the Pirates played their hearts out, but could not match the consistency of the Crusaders, and were forced to bow after a sizzling battle.

High scoring honors of the day went to Au, Alex Sandwich Shop forward, who tallied 18 points against Elfs A.C. Tanaka, Elfs' center, gave a wonderful exhibition of sharp-shooting by chalking up 14 digits.

Kang and Chun of Castle A.C. registered 11 and 10 points respectively in leading their mates to victory over a green Kaahumanu outfit. Takahashi clicked for six digits to lead the Vocats in downing the Monarchs.

The Diamond Packers-Kaheka tussle was featured by fine defensive play by both teams. Hisamura, Kaheka sub forward, was high-scorer with six points.
