

The advisory committee of the Pre-school met on Thursday, October 27th at 12:00 at the Pre-school.

The agenda discussed were:

1. The cost of running the school
2. Ways and means of raising funds
3. Attendance of school
4. Physical Examination given to children, etc.

Friday, October 31

The pre-school children had an interesting experience taking part in Palama's program. Much interest was shown in making the transcription record and the children enjoyed hearing themselves talk and sing. The children were also taken to see the orchid show.

A simple Halloween Party was observed by the children on Friday, October 28th. The table was decorated with Jack-o-lanterns and table mats made by the children were used. The children enjoyed singing Halloween songs and individual tea cakes with Jack-o-lantern faces were served as dessert.
