SHERIDAN A. C. WINS 120 POUND CAGE TITLE

David Y. K. Akana 27; Onomichiya 21
Sheridan A. C. 42; ACA Juniors 26

Sheridan A.C. won Palama Settlement's 120 pound basketball league title Sunday, November 24, by taking ACA Juniors in its stride 42-26 before a large crowd in the Settlement gym. David Y. K. Akana blitz-krieged Onomichiya Hotel 27-21 in the preliminary to the big game.

Makoto Suto's presence in the line-up gave Sheridan A.C. the punch necessary to stem the hard-playing ACA Juniors. Suto teamed beautifully with Ino to wreck the Chinese cagers, tallying 13 points while Ino collected 14. Nishioka and Nishimi starred at guard for Sheridan A.C. Spectacular shooting by Philip Kam kept ACA in the ball game until the final quarter, when Suto and company turned the tussle into a rout. Kam clicked for 15 digits, but was given poor support by his team-mates.

Sheridan A.C. was presented with a beautiful gold trophy symbolic of the championship immediately after the titular battle. The champions played brilliant ball in the round-robin series between sectional winners, taking David Akana 28-12 and Onomichiya Hotel 26-11 in addition to the ACA Juniors.

Sheridan's seasonal record follows: - seven victories in eight starts.

PAL 135# BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP TO COMETS

Charlie Chan A.C.	48;	Kaheka YMA	14
Comets	34;	ACA Juniors	23

Coach Francis Kapahua's fast-breaking Comets won the 1940 Palama community-wide 135# basketball league championship by whipping ACA Juniors 34-23 in scintillating manner Monday, November 25, in the Westside gym. Charlie Chan A.C. gained runner-up honors by swamping Kaheka YMA 48-14 in the first game behind Manuel Silva's 30-point firing.

The Comets outclassed ACA Juniors in every department of play, with Charley Raymond and Given Goo pacing their attack. Raymond tallied 14 points while Goo garnered 10. Ernest Ching dumped in 13 points for ACA from a guard position, while James Chun hooped eight. The victory was the Comets' third straight in the round-robin championships and clearly demonstrated their superiority.

Silva's spectacular firing turned Charlie Chan's victory into a rout. Kaheka's sharp-shooters were impotent and its defense crumbled before the snappy passing and shooting of the Punchbowl cagers.

The Comets received a beautiful gold basketball statuette for winning the championship. Their seasonal record - seven wins and one setback - is listed below:

Comets	-	32;	Tanikawa Florist	23
		34;	ACA Juniors	36
		42;	Radio Appliances	41
		40;	Esther Malt Shop	26
Round-	(29;	Charlie Chan A. C.	25
Robin	(61;	Kaheka YMA	34
	(34;	ACA Juniors	23

TOYAMA STARS IN WEIGHT-LIFTING TOURNAMENT

Y. Toyama of Palama dominated all events in the Triangular Weight-Lifting Meet between Palama Settlement, Nuuanu YMCA, and the Spartans held last Wednesday, November 20, in the Westside gym. The husky Pal lifter, with a bodyweight of 170 pounds, aggregated 710 pounds for a new territorial record.

Toyama pressed 195 pounds, snatched 225 pounds, and cleaned and jerked 290 pounds. He cleaned and jerked over 300 pounds, but was disqualified by the judges.

H. Gandall of the Spartans, with a bodyweight of 164 pounds, totaled 665 pounds for a brilliant performance. H. Sakata of Palama, weight 159 pounds, lifted 645 pounds, and I. Yamaguchi, also of Palama, hoisted 625 pounds with a bodyweight of 154 pounds for other fine marks.

Referee of the meet was James Lam, with Joe Kalau, Herman Schaltz, and Harold Chu as Judges; and Marn Chung and Roichi Nishigawa as Loaders. Louis Mendonca, AAU Weight-Lifting Committee Chairman, was in charge of activities.

POOL CHAMPIONS CROWNED AT MEN'S CLUBHOUSE

Walter Zane and D. Bimbo were crowned Palama Class A and Class B Pool champions respectively last week following end of play in the big Settlement-wide tournament conducted by James Koo in the Senior Clubhouse. Consolation winners in the respective divisions were Mori Okamoto and B. Bimbo. All winners were awarded theater tickets as prizes.

In a challenge match, D. Bimbo gained the Palama Open championship by upsetting Walter Zane by a 70-50 score.

Ping-pong will be finished this week although "Chicken" Yamaguchi has already won the Class A Consolation title, and Duke Sue the Class B championship.

PAL SPLASHERS SHOW UP WELL IN TURKEY SWIM

Coach Stanley Kudo's Palama Swimming Club made a commendable showing in the annual Thanksgiving Day Swim held Thursday, November 21, at the Ala Wai Canal.

The young Pal splashers were led by Satoru Terada, who tied for first place in the one-eighth mile race for boys under 13 years of age. In the opinion of many spectators, young Terada came in ahead of the field.
