JANUARY 1984

1984 is the year of the Rat. For those of you interested in the oriental zodiacal system, those born in the year of the Rat, according to oriental belief possess the following traits: they are noted for their charm but are fussy about small matters and have a tendency to pinch pennies. Although they can maintain an outward show of control, they are easily angered. They are honest and ambitious and have a tremendous capacity for pursuing a course to its end. They love to spend money on themselves. People born in the year of the Rat should take care not to gossip....for this might lead to shortterm friendships. Generally, their first phase of life will be good. They must take care to make sure that the second phase will not result in losses. The latter part of their life will be well and comfortable. Best marital partners are people born in the year of the dragon, monkey or ox. The following belong in the year of the rat: 1972, 1984, 1996, 2008, 2020, 2032, 1900, 1912, 1924, 1936, 1948 & 1960.

SEARCH FOR JEFFERSON AWARD NAMES

The Honolulu Advertiser again is searching for up to 10 Hawaii residents who have greatly benefited their communities through outstanding volunteer service - but whose efforts have not been publicly recognized.

This will be the sixth year of the Thomas Jefferson Awards program, sponsored by The Advertiser in cooperation with the American Institute for Public Service.

The aim is to honor those private individuals who in 1983 helped others by giving time, energy and leadership but who are largely unappreciated beyond their immediate circles.

Deadline for candidates being considered is January 25. If you have any questions regarding this award, please see Kaiulani.

Last year, several volunteers from Palamawere submitted. We were fortunate to have had Mr. & Mrs. Tovia Fatu from Mayor Wright Housing receive one of the ten awards.

Now is the time when we can truly express our thanks to our volunteers. Submit as many as you feel are deserving of this outstanding award.....NOW !!!!

Deadline for submitting items to be published in "Scoops from Da Staff" is the first Friday of every month.
