Beginner's Band Progress - by Lloyd Nakahara

Band is running over several selected pieces, (others to be chosen yet) in preparation for an anticipated concert. Without new material, we can do little else. Need new material.

Attendance is regular - a good sign. Band is sounding much better - it bogged down last month, but is picking up fine again.

Advanced Band

Mr. Roy Yanagida, director of the advanced band for four years has resigned. The boys in the advanced band are involved in two other organization, school band and orchestra, some boys are working part-time at nights and have not been able to have a full-band rehearsal.

We are working on a plan to send out fliers to the entire Palama membership in hopes of starting a new beginners band in the 12 and above age group.
